

CUTTIN' TIES by Backwood

You do it to'em all
You try to keep us small
But I will rise, till I can fly

You try to make em fall
To make yourself look tall
So you don't see, who I can be

Oh I've had enough
Don't need validation
Got no limitation

Don't you know
My eyes are on the price
I'm ready for the fight
I'm ready for the fight
Yeah I know
You're barking, but I'll bite
I'm ready for the fight
I'm ready for the fight
Tonight I'm finally cutting ties

My way is going up
Climb the mountain to the top
Till I can see, my own philosophy

Never again under control
My freedom is what I want
Just follow me, if you agree

Man I've had enough
Don't need validation
Got no limitation

Don't you know
My eyes are on the price
I'm ready for the fight
I'm ready for the fight

Yeah I know
You're barking, but I'll bite
I'm ready for the fight
I'm ready for the fight
Tonight I'm finally cutting ties

Man I've got a new life
Without the hooks
And without the chains

Feel the freedom in my bones
I hit the ground
I hit the ground running

Don't you know
My eyes are on the price
I'm ready for the fight
I'm ready for the fight

Yeah I know
I'm ready for the fight
